

MAT 205 : Applied Calculus for Business

Spring, Summer

Students enrolled in this course should have a strong background in college-level algebra. Topics include a review of functions and an introduction to the basic concepts of calculus. These concepts include limits, differentiation, curve sketching, and integration. An emphasis will be placed on application problems.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

MAT 145 College Algebra or by placement test