

Student Attendance

While regular attendance is highly encouraged, the College is a nonattendance tracking institution. Individual course attendance expectations are outlined in the course syllabus. Regular class attendance is required for students receiving financial aid. If a student fails to begin attendance or stops attending classes (unofficial withdrawal), financial aid may be reduced or cancelled.