

Admissions Office

As the first point of contact for new students, the Office of Admissions offers many services which assist students in becoming acclimated to college life. New student outreach programs are also conducted by this office.