

Student Health Services

Students who become ill or need emergency treatment will be directed to a local facility for care and treatment. The College assumes no responsibility for the medical treatment of students or for costs associated with services rendered or medical transportation.