

BIO 106 : Principles of Biology II Lecture

Spring

This introductory course provides an overview of the basic principles of biology including the structure and function of animals and plants, including organ systems, reproduction and the regulation of body systems. The course also provides an overview of the Earth's ecosystems and the diversity of life within each ecosystem. Lectures are complemented by discussions that stress critical thinking. This course is designed to prepare students for more advanced courses in biology.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

BIO 104

BIO 114

Corequisite Courses

BIO 116