CIT 285 : Information Technology Project

Spring
This course is designed as a capstone project for the Network Administration option. This course will provide the student with the opportunity to perform a major, hands-on project pertaining to this field.

Credits 2
Notes
Must be taken in student's last semester.