GOV 100 : Introduction to American National Government

Spring, Summer
This course introduces the processes and institutions of the American national government. The course examines the evolution of the principles, form, and operation of the national government system with special emphasis on constitutional issues; voting behavior; public opinion; the party system; the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of American national government.

Credits 3
Notes
This course is part of the 30 credit transfer framework agreement with the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education universities.